

DA140: Operative Dentistry & Properties of Dental Materials

Credit Hours: 4

Clock Hours: 40/40/0

In this course students will identify equipment, learn film sizes, film placement, duplication, infection control for radiology. They will learn both manual and automatic film processing and how to clean and fill automatic and manual processors. Students will expose and develop parallel, bisecting, bitewing, occlusal, panoramic and digital X-rays. They will learn to identify landmarks, critique and mount X-rays.

Prerequisites:

DA130