

RAD136: Clinical I

Credit Hours: 3.5

Clock Hours: 0/0/160

This course gives students practical learning experience in a clinical environment. This course gives the student the opportunity to apply the radiographic skills they have acquired thus far in a variety of settings, including the radiology departments of local healthcare facilities.