

RAD145: Positioning II

Credit Hours: 3

Clock Hours: 30/30/0

Students focus on radiographic considerations and positioning of the vertebral column, the kidneys and urinary tract, the upper and lower gastrointestinal tract, and the skull. Students learn necessary positions and perform simulated radiographic positioning, and receive instruction in techniques for dispensing ionizing radiation.

Prerequisites:

RAD135